“BEHOLD...THE BEST CREATION OF GOD!” MARTIN LUTHER ON MARRIAGE AND THE MARRIED LIFE

The year 2025 marks the 500th anniversary year of Martin and Katie Luther's marriage. Luther's embrace of married life ushered in a new and joyful way of thinking about marriage and family in the 16th century and helped restore married life to its rightful place in the world. In this workshop led by Dr. Jason Lane, associate professor of Historical Theology, participants will study Martin Luther's view of marriage and married life to deepen their understanding of God's will for marriage, children and domestic life today.
